

HOLY HOUR FOR JACK PHILLIPS SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3

"It's thus perfectly logical that the most acute threats to our religious freedom come from gender theorists and sex-rights activists - and businesses happy to support them - who push "liberation"."

JACK PHILLIPS' CASE TO BE HEARD BY THE SUPREME COURT TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5

Jack's story: In July 2012, 2 men came into Masterpiece Cakeshop in Lakewood, CO, and asked Jack Phillips, the owner, to bake a wedding cake for them. They planned to marry in Massachusetts, where same-sex marriages were legal at the time, and then hold a reception in Colorado. But Jack Phillips politely declined, explaining that he would gladly make them any other type of baked item they wanted, but that he could not design a cake promoting a same-sex ceremony because of his faith. The men filed a complaint with the Colorado Civil Rights Commission and Jack has been fighting this ruling in the courts ever since. The case has finally made it to the Supreme Court.

NOVENA FOR THE PERSECUTED CHURCH & RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

O great cloud of witnesses! O host of Angels and Saints worshiping God for all eternity! O holy ones in heaven above, Pray for us!

You who were once part of the Church on earth, you who were faithful servants of the Church Militant, you who suffered for the love of God, Pray for us!

In all ages, the Church is persecuted and hated. We pray, oh Lord, through your holy Saints, that we may be blessed with the freedom to worship and adore you at all times! We pray that you may bless your Church throughout the world and me personally with your grace to persevere with love in the face of persecution just as You did on the Cross.

(Mention your personal intentions here: That religious freedom and freedom of conscience will be upheld and that the Supreme Court will decide in Jack's favor)

“ ... religious liberty, by its nature, transcends places of worship and the private sphere of individuals and families. Because religion itself, ... is not a subculture; it is part of the culture of every people and every nation.. ”

- Pope Francis
